

Instruction Packet
for writing Affidavits of Fact

Thank you for contacting Task Force Alaska for help learning to write your testimony on paper which is also known as an Affidavit; the best way to begin writing your Affidavit of Fact is to brainstorm every event that has happened in which you believe your Rights have been trespassed;

Every single officer, employee or agent of the State or Federal government is under a public Oath of Office to protect you in the free exercise of your Rights; if they do not protect you and your Rights they can be held accountable; not only are agents accountable, but anyone who does you any harm, injury or loss can be held accountable and be required to make you whole (return you to the condition you were in before they trespassed upon you);

In order to hold any government agent or anyone else accountable you must first know your Rights and you must then stand up for them; writing Affidavits of Fact or any other sort of Affidavit or Declaration is a big step towards holding someone accountable for trespassing against you; the following is an outline of how to brainstorm your Affidavit and spark your thought process:

1. It is best to jot down any instance in which you believe that anyone has done harm to you regarding a given situation no matter who they are or what position they occupy;
2. Once you've brainstormed everything that you can think of double check to make sure all of these events are part of the same topic or subject;
3. Begin putting the events into a timeline (or in chronological order);
4. Check to be sure these are facts that answer who, what, when, where, and how to the best of your ability
5. Be sure you have first-hand knowledge of these facts;
6. Number each event from the first event to the most recent;
7. Try to include accurate names and dates to the extent possible, you can also use phrases that indicate a timeframe (such as, about a week later);
8. Read sample affidavits and listen to podcasts or video instructions in order to gain a greater understanding of how the most effective Affidavits are written;
9. Don't get too lengthy or too wordy; make your points clear;
10. Have someone read your Affidavit to check it for clarity;

Attached to this email are sample affidavits provided by Alphonse Faggiolo and are available on his website iamhassentmetoyou.com and his videos are on YouTube under his name; Alphonse is a great resource and will teach you very quickly how to make your Affidavits powerful and useful;

Here are two links to interviews Alphonse did on Ccrow777radio.com talking about the essential elements that must be included in your Affidavit of Fact and also how to write Affidavits of Status; Task Force Alaska is here to help you get through this process from the beginning to the end if you need the help; it all starts with sitting down at your kitchen table or at your computer and getting the facts down on paper;

Once you have a relatively good draft send it back to us at taskforcealaska@protonmail.com and we'll check that all the essential elements are there and help you get it finalized; the recording of our first conversation will be sent in a separate email to help you with this process; all recordings will be kept private until your permission is granted to make any part of them public; recordings are necessary part of our records for our protection as we move ahead with Federal and State Qui Tam Claims.
